

Lori Spar

Land use

Entitlement process

Environmental and Regulatory Compliance Matters

Home

Real Estate

Land Use

Environmental

Education Law

Employment Law

Litigation/Admin

ADR

Lawyers

of Counsel Lawyers

Contact us

Ms. Spar received her undergraduate degree from the State University of New York-Binghamton (B.A.-1990).

She is a graduate of Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in New York City (1993) where she was a co-founder and Senior Managing Editor of the Cardozo Women's Law Journal.

After moving to San Diego and practicing Workers' Compensation law, Ms. Spar returned to school where she received her LL.M. in Environmental Law at the University of San Diego School of Law (2003).

She worked as an Environmental Analyst and Land Use Planner for the County of San Diego for two years before joining the firm in January 2005.

Ms. Spar is a member of both the California and New York Bars.

Environmental Law | Education Law | Employment Law
Real Property | Land Use | Lawyers

Gary Stephenson, has taught over 20 seminars sporadically for lawyers in the areas of real estate finance (including foreclosures), real property purchases and sales, real estate taxes (including judicial disputes), life insurance, wills, and trust agreements.

- Real Estate, Real Estate Transactions and Finance, Real Estate Education, Real Estate Law, Real Estate Disputes

Don Yosting, has been an adjunct professor of Environmental and Oceanic Law at the University of San Diego and California Western University School of Law.

- Real Estate, Zoning and Entitlement, Real Estate Litigation, including Nuisance, Eminent Domain and related matters.

Doug George is former Chair of the Environmental Law/Land Use Section of the San Diego County Bar Association.